

Home-School Agreement Document

The Blue School is committed to developing its partnership with parents/carers in a spirit of co-operation and openness. Parents best know their child as an individual, while teachers have an overview of how children learn and relate to others. Working together will benefit students, their learning and social development. The agreement has been prepared in consultation with parents, students, teachers and governors. Further suggestions for improvement would be welcomed.

PRINCIPAL AIM – “The best we can achieve”

- in academic work
- in relationships and behaviour
- in sports, games and activities
- in the development of our own moral code

SCHOOL AIMS

Full Potential. The Blue School aims to create a climate of high expectations in which all students are motivated and encouraged to achieve their full potential intellectually, socially, physically, culturally and spiritually, within a secure and stimulating environment.

Curriculum. The school aims to provide a broad, balanced, relevant, accessible and enjoyable curriculum, which encourages students to think critically about a wide range of issues and to communicate their ideas in a variety of forms.

Equal Opportunities. All students should have equal opportunities to succeed and to develop the confidence and self-esteem on which that success may depend.

Social Skills. All students should have the opportunity to develop social skills and self-discipline, to take responsibility for their own actions and to become responsible members of a community.

Morality. All students should have the opportunity to develop a set of personal moral values and an awareness of the spiritual dimension of life and experience.

Cultural Development. Students should have opportunities for cultural, aesthetic, creative and physical appreciation and activity.

Home-School Agreement

What parents can expect from the school

The school agrees to:

- strive to achieve the School Aims;

- value your child as a unique member of the school community;
- try to ensure that your child achieves his/her full potential;
- provide a high quality education for your child;
- encourage self-confidence, self-reliance, initiative and community spirit;
- lay the foundations of life-long learning;
- teach a broad and balanced curriculum to the best of our ability within resources available;
- provide enriching activities and events in which your child can take part within resources available;
- care for your child's safety and well-being;
- contact you on your child's first day of absence if you have not contacted us by 9.30am;
- contact you if there is a problem with your child's attendance, punctuality or school equipment and let you know when the difficulty is resolved;
- let you know at an early stage of any concerns or problems that affect your child's work or behaviour;
- ensure that we are available, by prior appointment, to discuss your child's progress or your concerns;
- inform you through termly assessments about your child's progress;
- set, mark and monitor homework and provide appropriate facilities for your child to do homework in school;
- keep you informed about general school matters;
- have a clearly stated and consistently applied behaviour policy, detailing expectations, rewards and sanctions;
- operate a complaints procedure.

Home-School Agreement	How parents or carers can support us
------------------------------	---

As a parent or carer, we ask you to:

- encourage your child to develop a positive attitude to learning and to school;
- ensure that your child attends school regularly and on time and to provide an explanation for all absences by 9.30am on your child's first day of absence and each subsequent day, with a follow up note on their return to school;
- support your child's learning including the completion of any homework;
- support the school in maintaining standards of behaviour in line with the school's Behaviour Policy;
- encourage your child to act responsibly and to accept responsibility for his/her actions and their consequences;
- attend parents' evenings where possible and discussions about your child's progress;
- ensure that your child has what he/she needs to take a full part in lessons;
- ensure that your child complies with the school's uniform code;

- encourage your child to join school clubs and additional activities and events;
- tell school about circumstances which may affect your child's learning or behaviour;
- attend reintegration meetings following any exclusions.
